

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED
to attend a special pre-release showing of The First Rosa

Born to an ordinary life in an ordinary town in rural Alabama, Rosa J. Young was anything but ordinary. She would go on to accomplish extraordinary things for her community and the kingdom of God.

She played an instrumental role in the founding and development of 30 Lutheran elementary schools and 35 Lutheran congregations throughout Alabama's Black Belt region. Her legacy is unparalleled as a compassionate educator, confessor and church planter for Christ and His Church.

It's time to hear Rosa's full story.
